

Is your strategic investment is paying off?

SUB3 Management, Inc. is pleased to present our Return on Investment (ROI) Analysis.

SUB3 will review your current Project Program Management (PPM) system and advise your Executive Leaders on how to maximize the ROI within your company. SUB3 proprietary methodology has proven successful for clients around the world.

SUB3 conducts a systematic approach that comprises three main phases:

- Discovery
- Analysis and
- Recommendation

To initiate the process, SUB3 will run a series of interactive review sessions with key personnel to better understand how your company interacts with your Project Management software.

Questions about your Project Management Software will include:

- What features can be utilized to increase ROI?
- Are best practices captured and used to increase your companies' project management maturity?
- Is the current license count optimal for your organization?
- Are process and procedures fully documented and institutionalized?
- Are suggestions captured and rolled into future upgrades?
- Does the existing support model assist users?

ROI topics in our Analysis include:

- Hard Costs
- Soft Costs
- Licenses
- Legal Fees
- Hardware
- Pre Implementation Expenses
- Consulting Costs
- Post Implementation Expenses
- Training Costs
